

Case No. 8:16-cv-00900

I.	Introduction.....	1
II.	Statement of the Facts.....	3
A.	Background.....	3
B.	Foreclosure Process Generally.....	5
C.	Yoder “Blows the Whistle” on Overbilling	6
D.	Yoder’s Termination.....	13
E.	List of Disputed Material Facts.....	15
III.	Argument.....	16
A.	Plaintiff Clearly Establishes Elements Of A Retaliation Claim.....	16
1.	The FDCPA Generally Applies To Defendants’ Activities.....	18
2.	Yoder Had An Objectively Reasonable Belief That Defendants Were Violating The FDCPA.....	21

i.	Yoder Is Not Required To Have An Objectively Reasonable Belief As To Each Element Of An FDCPA Violation, Let Alone An Objectively Reasonable Belief As To The Non-Existence Of A Defense.....	21
ii.	Yoder Is Not Required To Demonstrate The Materiality Of An FDPCA Violation.....	24
iii.	Yoder Is Not Required To Have An Objectively Reasonable Belief That Defendants Had No Bona Fide Error “Defense.” Regardless, Defendants Have No Bona Fide Error Defense.....	25
B.	Yoder Was Subject To An Adverse Action.....	27
C.	A Reasonable Jury Could Conclude That Defendants’ Explanation As To Yoder’s Termination Are Pretextual.....	29
III.	Conclusion.....	46